Dear

Congratulations on your achievements and your admission to the Faculty of Applied Sciences at Simon Fraser University! Now more than ever, we need innovators and problem-solvers to tackle our world's most pressing issues and I envision you among the next generation of global technology leaders who will make a long-lasting societal impact. As you make your final decision of where to attend university, here is a glimpse of what awaits you at SFU to prepare you for a high-tech career.

Build an interdisciplinary skill set. Combine your foundational computing or engineering skills with many other world-class studies that SFU offers, such as science, economics, entrepreneurship, or liberal arts, which will help you approach technical problems from a broader perspective.

Gain real-world experience. Explore your career paths with paid internship opportunities that complement your academic studies and provide practical, hands-on experience.

Train with internationally-renowned experts. Learn from top researchers in academia and industry who are making groundbreaking discoveries. These connections will last well beyond graduation.

Put your skills into action to make a positive social impact. Create technology for social good by joining a student design team, building a community project, or participating in an international competition.

It's an exciting time in the Faculty of Applied Sciences on both our Burnaby and Surrey campuses. Our international reputation in computing science and software systems has been growing quickly, and we are expanding our unique accredited engineering programs in engineering science, mechatronics (including the newly launched agritech concentration), and sustainable energy engineering. I hope you will join us, as together we shape the future of computing and engineering.

Yours sincerely,

Dear

Congratulations on receiving your offer of admission to Simon Fraser University (SFU)'s Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences (FASS). Your studies in the humanities and social sciences will empower you to understand people, improve your community, navigate a complex and globalized world, and discover your purpose.

Our students love how FASS supports their academic journeys. We have peer mentors to show you around campus and give you tips on the best places to eat and study, student unions to connect you with like-minded students, and co-op and field schools to make you job ready. My personal recommendation is for you contact our academic advisors at Arts Central, the hub for all FASS undergraduate students. These advisors can help you prepare for your first semester and craft a program that fits your interests, so that you can gain the important skills and experiences you'll need for a variety of employment opportunities ? from teachers to lawyers, data analysts to government employees, and many more.

I also hope you feel pride in joining one of the top five Canadian schools for social sciences, arts and humanities according to the Times Higher Education World University Rankings om 2023. We offer courses in a range of languages and literatures, and programs that are acclaimed for excellence and innovation. No matter what you study, the FASS faculty members who will teach you are nationally and internationally recognized as the best in their fields.

FASS is where you will open your mind, build a diverse community of peers and mentors, and set in place the building blocks of a fulfilling future and dynamic career. Welcome to FASS. You'll have the most invigorating years of your life with us.

Sincerely,

S. Laurel Weldon, Ph.D., Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada

Listed below are the program(s) that you have applied to at York and the current status of your application(s):

Faculty	Degree	Program	Session	Decision	Response Deadline
Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies	BA	Criminology	FW24	Admitted - Conditional	May 1, 2024

York University Entrance Scholarship

All Entrance Scholarships are confirmed on final grades. Scholarships are based on your final admission average which is calculated including prerequisite courses. Congratulations on your current scholarship standing - keep up the good work!

Below are the Scholarship(s) you currently qualify for:

Faculty	Degree	Program	Scholarship Name	Amount
Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies	BA	Criminology	York University Automatic Entrance Scholarship	$2500.00

York University entrance scholarships are subject to change. Scholarships for eligible applicants who defer their admission will be subject to the scholarship program in place for the session in which they begin their studies. For further information, please contact Scholarships and Bursaries team at bursary@yorku.ca.

Admission and Scholarship Conditions

It is important to remember that your offer(s) of admission and of scholarship/award are conditional pending completion of several factors including your final average, program-specific required courses and your secondary school diploma. For a complete listing of Admission, Scholarship and Awards conditions that apply to your offer of admission please visit futurestudents.yorku.ca/admitted. Admission Conditions - deadline date to submit (FW-Aug 15; WI-Nov 15; SU-Apr 01).

You have been admitted with the following conditions and/or requirements regarding your enrolment in courses:

- You are required to submit final, official transcripts from each institution that you have attended. Please have any transcript(s) sent to the Office of Admissions.

To meet the condition of your offer of admission for your chosen program or study, York University expects that you will arrange for official transcript(s)/results and that your final results will be consistent with the mid-term/predicted grades submitted for your admission. Changes in your final results (from mid-term/predicted grades) may result in your offer being rescinded. Minimum admission standards for the university are required from all curriculum/school types, and these standards are available for review at <https://futurestudents.yorku.ca/admitted>.

Ontario Student Assistance Program (OSAP) and other Government Financial Aid

- If you wish to receive OSAP loans and/or grants, visit Ontario.ca/osap to apply. The 2024-2025 online OSAP application is expected to be available in Spring 2024.
- Submitted OSAP applications, with all required documents, received by July 15, 2024 will ensure a one-month tuition deferral at the start of the term.
- If you apply for OSAP, all entrance scholarships that you may receive from York University will be reported to the Ministry on your behalf and will be assessed for your OSAP entitlement.
- If you are from outside Ontario, you may wish to investigate opportunities for Government sponsored financial aid through your provincial/territorial Student Financial Assistance Office.

Dear

Congratulations on your admission to the Faculty of Health Sciences at Simon Fraser University. We are delighted to welcome you as a student.

The Faculty of Health Sciences builds on SFU's international reputation for innovation by offering a premiere interdisciplinary undergraduate health degree in British Columbia. We are unique in our approach to health and students are taught by internationally recognized faculty members with expertise in a range of health science fields, from global health to laboratory based biomedical sciences. Our teaching and research reflect our commitment to improving the lives and health of people at local, national, and global levels.

We offer two undergraduate degrees: the Bachelor of Science (BSc) and the Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Health Sciences. Within the BSc degree, students can choose to specialize in Life Sciences or Public Health and Data. In addition to our BA degree, we offer a joint major option with the Department of Philosophy. All of our degrees share the goal of providing graduates with the knowledge and skills that will enable them to make a difference in the world. While emphasizing different disciplines in the health sciences, the two degrees have an overlapping focus on population and public health and are accredited by the Council for Education in Public Health. We also offer an accelerated Bachelor's-Master's in Public Health pathway for qualified students as they complete their undergraduate studies.

Our degrees prepare students for post-graduate employment in health care and related sectors. They provide excellent preparation for professional careers in medicine, nursing, and allied health fields, as well as an excellent foundation for advanced research careers in health sciences.

I look forward to meeting you and welcoming you to the Faculty of Health Sciences.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Tania Bubela,
Dean of Health Sciences
